* We've Only Just Begun: Learning and Leisure.
This program is supported by the U.S. Institute of Museum and Library Services under the Library Services and Technology Act through the California State Library.

 This program is sponsored by Friends of the Sunnyvale Public Library.

• The Kepler Mission and NASA Update is the title of a talk by Eric Norris, NASA/JPL Solar System Ambassador. The Kepler Mission, NASA Discovery mission #10, is a space telescope that is designed to discover Earth-size planets in the habitable zones of their stars.

Tuesday, July 7, 2009 at 7 - 8:30 p.m.

• The Top Tourist Sights of the Solar System: Where Bill Gates' Great-Granddaughter Will Go on Her Honeymoon will be presented by astronomer and popular lecturer, Andrew Fraknoi. Using spectacular images from space probes and the world's largest telescopes, the most intriguing future tourist destinations among the planets and moons in our cosmic neighborhood will be explored. Free tickets are required. Limited quantities are available at the Adult Reference/Information Desk.

Thursday, July 9, 2009 at 6:30 -7:30 p.m.

• Who Killed the Electric Car? is a free screening of this award-winning documentary. After the film, meet a member of the Electric Auto Association and hear more about electric car ownership. Bring your questions!

Thursday, July 16, 2009 at 6:30 - 8:30 p.m.

• Forensic Facts, A Real Life Story will separate myth from reality in a program with Crime Scene Investigator, Bruce Dudley. He will present an example of a Sunnyvale case where forensic techniques really made a difference.

Monday, July 20, 2009 at 7 - 8 p.m.

• All About Bats will be presented by Monique Smith Lee of the California Bat Conservation Fund. The myths and misconceptions about bats will be discussed, along with their natural history and how we can help them. There will be an opportunity to meet some live native bats.

Saturday, July 25, 2009 at 2 - 3 p.m.

Pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act, the City of Sunnyvale will make reasonable efforts to accommodate persons with disabilities. If you require special accommodation, please contact the library at (408) 730-7300 at least five days in advance of the program.
